The latest edition of the Standard Point Location Code (SPLC) data files on CD-ROM contains new and revised SPLC assignments to military facilities, petroleum refineries and terminals, rail stations, and many other populated places. SPLC is required when submitting rates to the U.S. Department of Defense. Use the latest edition to ensure you have the most up-to-date SPLC assignments.

SPLC information is also available online. SPLC Online is the electronic, interactive tool providing you with the most up-to-date SPLC information. Once you log in, you can search the entire SPLC database that presently contains over 214,000 records for locations in the United States, Canada and Mexico.
